DETAILED ACTION

The finality of the last Office Action, dated 14 May 2003, has been withdrawn following the Decision on Appeal by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences, dated 18 July 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakanishi et al. (5,201,727).

Nakanishi discloses an absorbent article, as shown in figure 2, for wear in an undergarment, as described in column 1, lines 5-10. The article has a longitudinal axis and a transverse axis, and comprises a main body portion 1 having a wearer facing surface 2 and a garment facing surface 3. Side wrapping elements 5 extend laterally from the main body portion 1 and are integral with the main body portion 1, as shown in figure 1b. The side wrapping elements 5 are folded along fold lines and attached to the garment facing side 3 of the main body portion 1 adhering adhesive portions 6 and 7, as shown in figures 1a and 1b, and disclosed in column 5, lines 65-68.

Art Unit: 3761

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. U.S. Patent 5,217,448 discloses side wrapping elements attached to the garment facing surface of the article prior to use.
